

"Stone by Stone"

V1

Something's haunting me that no one can seea deep sadness slowly
swallowing me.
I get stuck in my head
lost in pain full of dread;
my thoughts are never still.
Then you turn my face
towards mercy and grace,
and wounds begin to heal.

Hope flares above like a shooting star.
My steps are small, but they'll take me far.
Each day you show me I'm not alone-
that love moves mountains.
But sometimes, it's stone by stone.
Stone by stone.

V2

Like an angel who lights candles for me
you can see the person
I want to be.
You reach out when I hide.
Hell and heaven collide.
I am caught in between.
Frozen in night- I'm drawn by the light to faith in things unseen.

BR

Each journey starts with a single step;
So, I'm learning to love myself-clearing the way.
My future starts today.

Hope gives me strength to get off the ground.
I once was lost, but now I'm found.
Each day you show me I'm not alone
that love moves mountains.
But sometimes it's stone by stone.
Stone by stone.

Outro:

We'll move them stone by stone.
Stone by stone (repeat)
