

"Different Colors"

(lyrics by Matt Glickstein, Jason Spraggins, and Steve Leader)

V 1

I know we have troubled hearts.
We've been lost, apart, and in the dark.
Up ahead, there is light;
common ground just in sight.
And we could have a whole new start.

All the wounds and all the scars
can heal over time.
Take my hand- it's not too far,
and we are sure to find..

CH

Different colors-
every turn, revealing something new.
Life is brighter
embracing a kaleidoscope of views.
We can play our parts, make a work of art
in all we do.
And help each other paint with different colors.

V2

Let's put to rest the endless fight
over which of us is wrong or right.
We can share this world, our home,
with different shades and different tones.
Life's not lived in black and white.

Seasons change, flowers bloom;
leave the past behind.
Take my hand- it's not too far,
and we are sure to find..

(repeat chorus)
