

"Unspoken"

V 1

There's a fog in the air around us-
A cold veil of uncertainty.
There's lightning in the clouds above us,
Flashing sparks of electricity.
The night is alight with potential
and the spark of a mystery.
There's a secret lurking in the shadows that waits and longs to be set free.

Unspoken are the words buried deep inside-
Hidden with the feelings
you have pushed aside
To a prison where the doors are never opened.
Unspoken are the truths you have tried to hide.
Silent is the song that could change the tide.
The barriers between us are not broken.
And love is unspoken.

V 2

There's a shift in the ground below us,
And it grows in intensity.
(While) spirits in the space between us
Whisper secrets from eternity.
The beast- it still hides in the shadows,
And hunts us relentlessly.
There's a need to break through our silence-
Discover our shared destiny.

(repeat chorus)

BR

Through the mist
I can see
Your hand reach out to me
as you drift away.
Now the night
turns to day
We've so much left to say.
But fear stands in the way.

Unspoken are the words buried deep inside-
Hidden with the feelings
you have pushed aside
To a prison where the doors are never opened.
Unspoken are the truths you have tried to hide.
Silent is the song that could change the tide.
The barriers between us are not broken.
And love is unspoken.
